

ACSCA Summer Chess Camp 2009

July 20 - 23rd Monday to Thursday
9:00am - 4:30pm
Early drop off at 8:00am
Late pick up no later than 5:00pm

Friday, July 24th 10:00 - 5:00pm
Free, supervised camp tournament at the downtown library
401 East University Avenue
Rated/Unrated Sections

Details: Campers must bring their own lunch, although morning and afternoon snacks will be provided. Candidate Masters Britt Ryerson and Gregory Kimmel will be the lead instructors. The other staff members are: George Pyne, Monica Dewitt, Holly Ray and Cindy Young. All levels of students are accepted; however the camp is limited to elementary and middle school students. Activities will include: daily lectures, Camp Championship, simultaneous games, blitz, bughouse, as well as outdoor activities and other games. Camp will be held at Lawton Chiles Elementary School, 2525 School House Rd. (by SW 24th Ave), Gainesville

Student's Name _____ Age _____ School _____

Parent's Name _____ Home # _____ Work # _____

Address _____ City _____ Zip _____

E-Mail _____ Level: ___ Advanced ___ Intermediate ___ Beginner

Emergency Contact _____ Phone #(s) _____

Name of hospital, emergency service, doctor's office: _____

Insurance Company Name* _____ Policy # _____

*Students enrolled in ACSCA Chess Camp are required to have insurance coverage.

I give permission for my child to participate in the ACSCA Summer Chess Camp. I release ACSCA from liability with the understanding that safety care is a priority.

Signature _____ Relationship _____ Date _____

Tell us about your child: particular strengths, interests, less developed areas, special needs, etc. on the back of this registration form if needed.

Make checks payable to the Alachua County Scholastic Chess Asso. (ACSCA). The ACSCA can also accept Visa and MasterCard by telephone. Mail completed form to the ACSCA Chess Camp P.O. Box 12197, Gainesville, FL 32604. You are encouraged to sign up early because the camp is expected to fill up quickly. You will receive a receipt for registration and a camp schedule.

- You must include payment for the tuition at the ACSCA Camp. Tuition is $200 and each additional sibling is $100.
- The ACSCA Chess Camp is providing scholarships at the 2009 camp. Any donation to our non-profit educational organization would be applied towards these scholarships.

$ _____ Total enclosed

For more information, call George Pyne at (352) 373 - 9110 or email George@gainesvillechess.com